A half-day seminar with

Ann Manning &
Kerry Schweigert

Sunday
13th July 2014
9.30am -1pm

(Register from 9am for a 9.30am start)

ABOUT THE PRESENTERS

Ann Manning originally studied psychology, graduating BSc (Hons) from Monash University in 1974. She worked in theatre education and community theatre for many years. During that time she taught in the Drama Department at the University of Newcastle.

Ann has been practicing as a homoeopath in Sydney since 2002. She has a keen interest in mentoring new graduates and also educating the wider community to understand and appreciate the power and scope of homoeopathy. As well as conducting first aid classes for her client base, Ann is an online tutor for Endeavour College and teaches Homoeopathy for Childbirth at the Australian Doula College.

Kerry Schweigert has worked as a psychologist since graduating with a BSc (Hons) in 1982 mainly with children and their families. Since graduating as a Homoeopath in 2000, she has developed a homoeopathic practice that combines the principals of homoeopathy with her skills and experience as a psychologist. Kerry has extensive experience in treating people facing difficulties with life situations (relationships, work, transitions), which are often associated with anxiety, depression, panic attacks, sleep disorders and physical illnesses.

'HOMEOPATHY & MENTAL HEALTH'

Ann Manning and Kerry Schweigert will present this half day seminar aimed at practicing homoeopaths, new graduates and students who are looking to expand their knowledge and comfort in treating patients with mental health issues.

The seminar aims to:

- introduce some common mental health conditions
- provide insights into treating and evaluating treatment progress with patients who present with either overt or underlying mental health conditions

Conditions discussed will include:

- depression
- anxiety
- personality disorders

The seminar will include:

- discussion on complex presentations
- mental health treatment approaches
- difficulties in treatment and follow up
- working with other professionals
- case presentations including treatment outcomes and follow-up
